About Speaker

The book, "Minor Hints: Rules of Good Governance", was first printed in English for the internal use of the Royal family. After that, in 1985, it was translated into Gujarati. Since the Hindi edition of the book was not available at that time, the book could not reach a larger part of society. Shri Narendra Modi, the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, the Chief Minister of Gujarat then, had suggested that this book should be translated into Hindi. The book was then translated in Hindi by Dr. Jigar Inamdar.

Dr. Jigar Inamdar did his Ph.D in Public Administration on the topic "Relevance of Maharaja Sayajirao Gaekwad III in the Modern Era". His detailed research, spanning over 5 years, led him to master this topic during this time.
